Re: *L.J. Zucca, Inc. v. Allen Bros. Wholesale Distributors Inc., et al.
Civil Action No. 1:07-CV-00002 (JJF-MPT)

Dear Judge Farnan:

We represent Defendant Cooper-Booth Wholesale Company (“Cooper-Booth”) in the above-referenced matter. On January 23, 2007, Cooper-Booth filed a motion under Rule 12(c) for partial judgment on the pleadings (Docket Entry No. 12), which has been fully briefed and is currently pending before Your Honor.

In that motion, Cooper-Booth argues that plaintiff’s claims under the Delaware Unfair Cigarette Sales Act (“UCSA”), 6 Del. C. §§ 2601 – 2608, are preempted by Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1. Cooper-Booth’s motion challenges the UCSA as being a form of minimum resale price maintenance; a vertical restraint that the United States Supreme Court has traditionally condemned as being a per se violation of the Sherman Act. But after the parties fully briefed the motion, the Supreme Court released its decision in Leegin Creative Leather Products, Inc. v. PSKS, Inc., 127 S.Ct. 2705 (2007), and held that minimum resale price maintenance would no longer be considered a per se violation of the Sherman Act.

Upon further research after the Supreme Court’s decision in Leegin, Cooper-Booth has determined that its Sherman Act preemption argument remains valid on the premise that the UCSA is a horizontal price restraint, which, even after the decision in Leegin, is a per se violation of the Sherman Act.

What we propose, therefore, is to withdraw our original motion for partial judgment on the pleadings, which was filed pre-Leegin, and file in its place a revised motion for partial judgment on the pleadings. We intend to do this Wednesday, March 12, 2008.
